Mickey, a toy poodle mix, was found stabbed to death in his owner's backyard.

WHEN:

Friday, August 25th
10pm

WHERE:

23700 block of 74th Ave
along Interurban Trail

Mickey, a 10 ½ pound toy poodle mix was found stabbed to death and partially skinned around 10pm August 25th in his owner's backyard. The owner let his dog out in a fenced backyard Friday the 25th around 10pm. After becoming concerned that the dog went missing, the owner searched the backyard with a flashlight, discovering Mickey's body. A huge part of Mickey's skin and fur had been removed and a local vet confirmed that this was not the work of an animal.

Now, Edmonds Police are asking for the public's help to identify a suspect.
